

Horizon 2020 Energy Efficiency

Newsletter

|

News

NOVICE: New business model encourages ESCOs to join forces with demand response aggregators

The NOVICE project has been testing the validity of an innovative new business model for Energy Service Companies. See how!

More

Training professionals and craftsmen on energy-efficient traditional building skills

The PRO-Heritage project coordinator describes how the project fosters traditional crafts supporting the energy-efficiency of heritage buildings.

More

Strengthening the EU Building Sector through new qualification schemes

The NEWCOM project coordinator explains how the project is supporting EU building professionals on the execution of high quality nearly zero-energy buildings.

More

ASSIST model proved successful in tackling energy poverty

H2020 funded project ASSIST is approaching its end. It has built a successful model to support consumers in need offering a two-way approach to energy poverty. See how!

More

Energy efficiency in industry and services: help us devise the next LIFE programme!

Through this Survey, we intend to gather further input on the most pressing market's needs and content gaps to be addressed within the Clean Energy Transition sub-program of LIFE for the industry and services sectors.

More

EUSEW20 special

H2020 Energy Efficiency at the EU Sustainable Energy Week

The first-ever digital edition of the EU Sustainable Energy Week (EUSEW) drew 4,600 participants from 120 countries across the world. Take a look at the quick recap.

More

Tips for your project proposal

Improve your proposal impacts for the last H2020 Energy Efficiency Call

Are you intending to submit a proposal for the H2020 Energy Efficiency Call 2020 with deadline on 10 September? Check out the 'Guidelines for the Calculation of Project Performance Indicators' developed by EASME and based on lessons learnt from past energy efficiency projects. It will help you to better calculate your project impacts and can improve your chances in the evaluations.

More

This is a newsletter from the European Commission, Executive Agency for SMEs \(EASME\).

Subscribe - Unsubscribe

Contact EASME

The European Commission is committed to personal data protection. Any personal data is processed in line with the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. Please read the privacy statement